Sir,

When one of our Representatives had the pleasure of visiting Bangalore sometime during last year, he was informed that a proposal was on foot to redognise the L.C. Smith & Brothers Typewriter and to order that make when machines are required for the offices in your state. This machine is fitted with the latest improvements and conveniences and is a very strong reliable one. The machine was exhibited at the Mysore Dasara Industrial Exhibition 1911, and a silver Medal (highest award) was offered for it. There are ~~xxxx~~ nearly thirty L.C. Smith & Bros. Type-writers in use in your state. The machine being very strong and up-to-date and decidedly superior to the other makes now used in India, it is worthy of your encouragement and we have the honour to request you to kindly see your way to standardise the machine for use in your state and pass necessary orders for the purchase of this class of machines only. We would just mention here that it is largely used by the Government of Madras, leading firms, Banks,&c here and also by the South Indian and M. & S.M. Railways.

We have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servants
Ramsay & Sons
